

The Barber of Seville

In the Seville dawn, humble  "Lindoro" serenades  Rosina- but to no  reply.

Happy Figaro  arrives: barber, messenger, matchmaker and jack of all trades.

He sees that "Lindoro" is really Count Almaviva, who wishes

 Rosina to love him for himself, not his wealth.

The prospect  of gold convinces Figaro to help Almaviva win Rosina.

Overhearing  Bartolo planning to marry  Rosina soon, they know there's no time

To lose. The romantic Count muses love is worth far more than gold.

Independent  Rosina will let nothing get in the way of her  love for "Lindoro"

Figaro will be her messenger. Music master  Basilio

Advise Bartolo that Almaviva is in town - and that the Count secretly loves Rosina.

Suspicious , Bartolo hastens his plans to marry  Rosina tomorrow.

Almaviva arrives at Bartolo's disguised as a drunken soldier.

He passes a  note to Rosina making Bartolo  suspicious.

An argument  between Bartolo and the "soldier" draws the  police,

Who recognizing the Count, depart-  baffling Bartolo!

Claiming Basilio is ill, Almaviva returns disguised as a substitute music teacher.

While shaving Bartolo, Figaro pockets the key to the balcony.

Basilio, arriving for Rosina's lesson, is sent away with a  bribe.

The young  lovers plan a midnight  elopement.

Suspicious, Bartolo  violently sends everyone away.

Housekeeper  Berta marvels at the insanity of Love.

Bartolo convinces Rosina "Lindoro" is an  agent of Count Almaviva.

Furious, she reveals the secret elopement plot-the thunder reflects her rage.

Figaro and Almaviva climb in through the balcony.

Rosina  lashes out but Almaviva reveals his true identity and sincere love  for her.

Figaro is thrilled to have brought the lovers together have made a match!

Basilio arrives with Bartolo's  notary who marries Rosina and Almaviva instead!

Arriving too late, Bartolo accepts He must bless the union. All celebrate the joy of young love! 