

Romeo and Juliet

A tale of star  crossed lovers.

 Verona's Prince  is enraged by the discord  sown by the Capulets
And  Montagues. Further violence will be punished  by death!

 The  Nurse and Lady  Capulet encourage  Juliet to accept the hand of  Count Paris. She  refuses.

 Romeo,  Benvolio and  Mercutio attend Capulet's masked ball.
Romeo and Juliet meet and fall in love at first sight!

 Juliet's cousin Tybalt  recognizes Romeo as a Montague but Lord and Lady Capulet  refuse to have bloodshed  in their home.

 Later Romeo visits Juliet in her garden comparing her beauty to the sun!
Their love blossoms and they exchange vows of love.

 The pair is secretly  wed with the help of the Nurse and Friar  Lawrence.

Later, Tybalt challenges Romeo but he refuses  to fight. Mercutio takes up the challenge
 Instead and is  killed. Grief-stricken , Romeo  slays Tybalt.
The angry Prince has mercy and only banishes  Romeo.

The couple share their  wedding night, but, too soon Romeo must  depart.
Lord and Lady Capulet entreat Juliet to accept the hand of Paris.
Juliet again refuses  to her parents' fury.

 Friar Lawrence has a plan. Simulating Juliet's death, Romeo will then rescue her.
Juliet drinks the sleeping potion. Her devastated  parents lay her in a crypt.

Romeo never receives Friar Lawrence's message.
Finding his love  dead, he drinks  poison to join Juliet.
Juliet wakes to find Romeo dead  and stabs herself to be united with him in death.

 Peace falls over Verona as both families mourn their lost children.
